

Ortho-Bionomy Classes

ie. Who can teach, once they have gone through IRC approval & adding class process

Key - P-Practitioner, AP-Advanced Practitioner, I-Instructor

Class/Training Program	Associate Instructor	Instructor	Associate Advanced	Advanced Instructor
Feedback Sessions	X	X	X	X
Evaluation Sessions	P	X	X	X
Consultations	P	X	X	X
Advisors*	P	P, AP, I	X	X
Study Group	X	X	X	X
Ethics Tutorial/Study Group for Associates	X	X	X	X
Anatomy & Physiology		X	X	X
Business Practices		X	X	X
Demonstration Skills		X	X	X
Equine/Animal		X	X	X
Exploration of Movement		X	X	X
Isometrics & Isotonics		X	X	X
Phase IV		X	X	X
Practitioner Training Seminar		X	X	X
Self Care		X	X	X
Posture & Post Techniques		X	X	X
Residentials - cotaught with adv Inst		X	X	X
Chapman's Reflexes			X	X
Cranial				X
Ethics & Emotional Issues				X
Instructor Training Seminar				X
Phase V			X	X
Visceral			X	X
Phase VI				X
Phase VII				X
AITs				X

*Instructor Process to add classes: Bench, Co-teach and recommended to teach by instructor

Letter from Advising instructor that instructor is confirmed to add class to their personal class list

Phase IV Instructors (Instructors) can teach other courses (from Phase IV perspective)

Phase V Instructor (Associate Advanced) can teach courses (from Phase IV and V perspective)

Advanced Instructors can teach all courses that they have co-taught and have been confirmed by an Advanced Instru

Assoc Adv/Adv - bench, co-teach and recommended to teach by Advisor

Active Instructor definition - 3-5 classes per year